The North Canton Police Department has arrested the second suspect in the aggravated robbery that occurred at the Spee-D-Foods at 953 South Main Street on December 7, 2013.

Javawn A. Moore turned himself in at the Canton Police Department on December 23, 2013 after learning the North Canton Police Department and Stark County Fugitive Task Force were looking for him on a felony warrant for "Complicity to Commit Robbery." (Canton Muni Court Case # 2013CRA05190). He was booked into the Stark County Jail on the listed charge.

The other suspect, Jewel D. Moore, was charged in the same incident on December 8, 2013. He was charged with the following (Canton Municipal Court Case # 2013 CRA05111):

- "Aggravated Robbery"
- "Possession of Criminal Tools"
- "Carrying Concealed Weapons"
- "Using Weapons While Intoxicated"
- "Underage Consumption"

Jewel was arrested on a traffic stop shortly after the robbery a few blocks away from the Spee-D-Foods by the North Canton Police Patrol Division. He was a passenger in the vehicle. The driver of the car fled the scene. Further investigation by the North Canton Police Department revealed that Javawn Moore was the driver who fled.

Javawn and Jewel are cousins.
